

CALL FOR PAPERS

Análisis GEurasia (ISSN 2531-0569) is an open-access academic publication of the European and Eurasian Studies Group (GEurasia), based in Spain.

GEurasia was founded in 2016 by a group of Spanish lecturers and researchers in Political Science and International Relations, specialized in the study of post-Communist countries.

It is independent and funded through research projects or other public grants. The opinions expressed are those of the authors.

Submissions: Please follow the instructions for authors available on our website. Manuscripts must be between 2,000–3,000 words, and not have appeared in other publications. All texts are peer reviewed by two anonymous referees. Each article is published individually, as soon as it has been accepted.

Thematic scope: Recent political, economic, and/or social evolution of any of the post-Communist countries of Central and Eastern Europe, Balkans, Russia, Caucasus, or Central Asia.

Historical or cultural issues are excluded, unless they are directly linked to current political, economic, or social events.

Languages: Submissions can be made in English or Spanish. Articles in English will be translated by GEurasia and published in both languages.

Editorial Board

EDITOR:

Javier Morales Hernández

ASSOCIATE EDITORS:

Rubén Ruiz Ramas, Ruth Ferrero Turrión

Jesús de Andrés Sanz, Florian Bieber, Luisa Chiodi, Gemma Collantes-Celador, Asel Doolotkeldieva, José María Faraldo Jarillo, Natividad Fernández Sola, Tobias Flessenkemper, Carlos Flores Juberías, Eugene Huskey, Volodymyr Ishchenko, Ana E. Juncos García, Tatyana Malyarenko, Cristina Manzano Porteros, Michał Natorski, Eric Pardo Sauvageot, Abel Polese, Miguel Rodríguez Andreu, Francisco J. Ruiz González, Richard Sakwa, Francesc Serra Massansalvador, Greg Simons, Ekaterina Stepanova, Sherrill Stroschein

Latest issues

- 1/2017 “¿Sigue teniendo interés académico la Europa Oriental en España?” (Jesús de Andrés, UNED, Madrid)
- 2/2017 “Can Belarus Perform a Real Balancing Act Between Russia and the West?” (Arkady Moshes, FIIA, Helsinki)
- 3/2017 “A New ‘Reset’? Can the Trump Administration Normalise Relations with Russia?” (Ruth Deyermond, King’s College London)
- 4/2017 “Nagorno Karabaj: ¿al borde del abismo?” (Abel Riu, Centre Delàs, Barcelona)
- 5/2017 “The Politics of Marketing of Vladimir Putin to Global Audiences” (Greg Simons, Uppsala University)
- 6/2017 “El suministro de gas natural de Rusia a Ucrania: paradojas de un divorcio pacífico” (Eric Pardo, Universidad de Deusto, Bilbao)
- 7/2017 “La ‘fatiga europea’ en los Balcanes Occidentales: volatilidad local e intervención de potencias” (Miguel Rodríguez Andreu, Revista Balkania, Belgrade)
- 1/2018 “Transnistria: un conflicto prolongado por la intervención de Rusia” (José Ángel López Jiménez, Universidad Pontificia Comillas, Madrid)